COMMUNITY SERVICE CORNER

January 2019

Park Cleanup

On the penultimate weekend of the marking period, there was a big push to complete service! 30 students showed up for a park cleanup. We headed to Circo Massimo, which was definitely in need of a tidy. In fact, many people stopped us while we were there to say thank you.

Hummus Town Sales

After Hummus Town founder and St Stephen's Alumn, Shaza Saker, came to speak to students at Monday Meeting, a group of students joined forces to help Hummus Town meet their fundraising goal and support refugees in Rome become economically independent. Sales of Syrian treats in the Cortile, with proceeds going to Hummus Town have been very popular! Click here to find out more.

Marking Period 2
